Tuire Nissinen

Front End Developer

BACKGROUND

My name is Tuire Nissinen. I'm a front end developer based in Finland. I learned the basics of HTML and CSS during my studies at Taitotalo. After graduating I have studied JavaScript and React.js independently through various online courses and by just by trying things out! At the moment I'm working my way through Scrimba's front end developer career path to improve my skills in JavaScript and React. Also with quite a bit of customer service experience acquired I can handle anybody. Don't be afraid to hit me up!
